Aaron, along with his wife Caitlin and daughters Avery and Evelyn own and operate Eaton Holsteins. Aaron and Caitlin house their cattle and work alongside the team at Currie Holsteins in Tully, New York where he assists with daily operations, cattle development, showing, marketing and genetic sales. Over the past 20 years, Aaron has been fortunate to manage or assist with several very successful sales, as well as having some success in the show ring. Eaton Holsteins has garnered more than 100 All American or All Canadian nominations, including 9 Holstein, Jersey or Red & White cows named National champions, 11 Heifers named Jr Champion or Reserve at the World Dairy Expo or The Royal winter fair and owning or breeding several high scoring cows, consisting of 1@ EX-97, 3@ EX-96, and 4@ EX-95. Prior to being at home full time, Aaron has had the opportunity to work with many well-known show herds around the world and also worked as a dairy cattle fitter for 12 years across North America, South America and Europe. Since then, Aaron has had the privilege to judge many state, regional and National shows throughout North America.
