Tyler Chupp grew up in Inola Oklahoma on his family's registered dairy farm. He grew up on a farm focused on show-type cattle. Tyler is a graduate from Oklahoma State University where he was on the Judging team for 3 years. Some of his achievements were finishing in the top 10 at three different collegiate contests. Tyler now helps manage the family farm as well as works for his family's auction company as well as working for his shavings delivery company. Tyler and his family enjoys exhibiting at World Dairy Expo and NAILE in Louisville as well as the local shows in the area each year. Currently Tyler and his family are milking a small group of registered cattle as well as boarding heifers for clients.
